

INDIGENOUS HEALTH CONFERENCE MAY 26-27, 2016

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Objectives to discuss:

- Health disparities & burden of disease among Indigenous peoples in Canada (First Nations, Inuit, Métis)
- Cultural competencies and safety in working with Indigenous peoples
- Strategies working towards Reconciliation and long term solutions towards health equity
- Impact of the environment as determinant on Indigenous health
- Job Fair to facilitate matching healthcare providers with working opportunities with Indigenous populations

Target Audience

Individuals interested in indigenous health are welcome. The focus will be on interdisciplinary healthcare providers and may include:

- physicians
- nurses
- nurse practitioners
- midwives
- allied health providers
- community health workers
- students
- social workers
- public health specialists and policy makers
- researchers

Themes

- Reconciliation
- Women's health (e.g., reproduction, violence)
- Children's health
- Mental health (e.g., substance abuse)
- Infectious disease
- Chronic disease
- Nutrition
- Determinants of health (e.g., housing, poverty)
- Environmental health
- Health care systems
- Cultural competency and safety
- Traditional ways and self-determination
- Indigenous research and population health data

Dates to Note

Abstract Submissions Open:	Wednesday, September 30, 2015
Abstract Submissions Close:	Friday, January 15, 2016 at 11:59pm
Successful Submission Notification:	Tuesday, February 16, 2016
Presenter Response:	Tuesday, March 15, 2016

For more information
please visit the website:

WEBSITE