

Building Teams for Integrated Compassionate Care

The “Caring About Me” Framework: A Constructivist Grounded Theory Study to Understand the Patient-Centered Care Experience in Integrated Care

Alaa Youssef, Institute of Medical Sciences, Department of Psychiatry - University of Toronto, a.youssef@mail.utoronto.ca

Evaluation of a Consultative Collaborative Care Model; Effective Prevention, Detection, and Management of Delirium in Adults

Caitlin Monaghan, Trillium Health Partners, Institute for Better Health, caitlin.monaghan@live.com

Customer Service and De-Escalation Training: There’s nothing soft about our skills

Dharshika Watson, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, dharshika.watson@camh.ca

Steven Hughes, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, steven.hughes@camh.ca

Assessing Quality of Care Delivery in a Novel Model of Collaboration between Community and Hospital Partners: The Down Syndrome Clinic Experience. Authors: Ilana Geist, Dr. Joelene Huber, and Dr. Nirit Bernhard.

Ilana Geist, The Hospital for Sick Children, ilana.geist@mail.utoronto.ca

Update on a Pilot Day Hospital Project to Address Severe Obesity and Mental Illness Among Adolescents

Natalie Phung, University of Toronto/The Hospital for Sick Children, natalie.phung@mail.utoronto.ca

Building Teams for Integrated Compassionate Care

Paul Martin Demers, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, paul.martindemers@camh.ca

Joses Wong, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, joses.wong@camh.ca

Collaborating with Clients and Families to Develop Medical Psychiatry Education

Good Medicine: Understanding Indigenous Experiences in Healthcare

Yasmeenah Elzein, CAMH, Yasmeenah.Elzein@camh.ca

Allison Crawford, CAMH, allison.crawford@utoronto.ca

Improving Communication with Patients through Education

Where is the family voice? Examining the relational dimensions of the family–healthcare professional and its perceived impact on patient care outcomes in mental health and addictions

Andrew Johnson, CAMH, andrew.johnson@camh.ca

Comparing Models of Telemental Health: Data from a Feasibility Study at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health

Eva Serhal, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, eva.serhal@camh.ca

Women's Health Matters: Educational Collaboration to enhance Psychiatric/Mental Health Content in the Obstetrics/Gynaecology 3rd year Clerkship Student Rotation

Pamela J. Mosher, MD, MDiv, University of Toronto, MD Program, Clerkship Lead, Medical Psychiatry; Princess Margaret and Sick Kids Hospitals, pamela.mosher@uhn.ca

Dini Hui, MD, Sunnybrook Hospital, University of Toronto MD Program, dini.hui@sunnybrook.ca

Leveraging Technology for Enhanced Education

ECHO Ontario Psychotherapy: Building Capacity in the Delivery of Structured Psychotherapy

Anne Kirvan, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Anne.Kirvan@camh.ca

4 Mental Health: Piloting a Mental Health Screener in a Paediatric Tertiary Care Hospital

Erin Lawson, SickKids, erin.lawson@sickkids.ca

Sharon Lorber, SickKids, sharon.lorber@sickkids.ca

An Evaluation of the ECHO Ontario Complex Patient Management Pilot Program

Jodi Wolff, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Jodi.Wolff@camh.ca

ECHO Obsessive Compulsive Disorder: Preliminary Data from a New Virtual Education Program for Healthcare Providers in Ontario

Sarah MacGrath, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Sarah.MacGrath@camh.ca

Handovers enhancement via electronic and simulation learning

Tanja Kotolenko, CAMH, tanja.kotolenk@camh.ca

Beyond the classroom: using high fidelity simulation to upskill currently practicing nurses in a mental health hospital

Tucker Gordon, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, tucker.gordon@camh.ca

Measurement Based Care and Quality Improvement

Medical Psychiatry Alliance Seniors Outpatient Project: Evaluation of an Integrated Collaborative Care Model for Seniors Living with Physical and Mental Health Symptoms

Amna Ali, Trillium Health Partners, amna.ali@thp.ca

Shifting the Safety Culture: Using simulation to build capacity in team-based incident review at a mental health hospital

Anika Saiva, Simulation Centre, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, anika.saiva@camh.ca

Stephanie Sliekers, Simulation Centre, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Stephanie.Sliekers@camh.ca

OPTIMUM: OPTIMIZING OUTCOMES OF TREATMENT-RESISTANT DEPRESSION IN OLDER ADULTS – Measuring patient treatment progress over time via monitoring assessments and clinical strategies to guide a more effective plan of care.

Jessica Liu, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, jessica.liu@camh.ca

Lareb Khan, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, lareb.khan@camh.ca

Changing the Conversation: Addressing Emotional Wellbeing and Mental Health in Adolescents Living with Type 1 Diabetes

Judith Versloot, Institute for Better Health, Trillium Health Partners, Judith.Versloot@thp.ca

Dr. Ian Zenlea, Trillium Health Partners, ian.zenlea@thp.ca

Preparing Providers to Manage Individuals With Complex Physical and Mental Health Needs

The Adaptive Use of CANMAT Depression Guidelines by Psychiatric Providers: Expanding the Narrative Beyond Strict Adherence

Alex Raben, The Wilson's Centre, University of Toronto, alex.raben@mail.utoronto.ca

Simulation-based learning is highly effective in enhancing skills and changing attitudes of clinicians trained to provide treatment for opioid use disorder

Asha Maharaj, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Office of Education, Asha.Maharaj@camh.ca

Healthy Physicians, Healthy Patients

Dr. Leslie Nickell, University of Toronto, leslie.nickell@utoronto.ca

Dr. Andrea Levinson, University of Toronto, andrea.levinson@utoronto.ca

Integrating Mood Management into Smoking Cessation Programming as part of Best-practice Treatment for Smokers with Depression: A cluster randomized trial comparing the effectiveness of two implementation strategies

Dr. Nadia Minian, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, nadia.minian2@camh.ca

Evaluation of a Pilot Addiction Medicine Week Created for and by Pre-Clerkship Medical Students

Hilary Stone, University of Toronto MD Program, hilary.stone@mail.utoronto.ca

Melissa Tigert, University of Toronto MD Program, melissa.tigert@mail.utoronto.ca

Attachment anxiety mediates between childhood adversity and medically unexplained symptoms.

Karen Le, Mount Sinai Hospital, karen.le@sinaihospital.ca

Patients' And Physicians' Perceptions Of Medically Unexplained Symptoms In Primary Care: Is There A Road To Common Ground?

Karen Le, Mount Sinai Hospital, karen.le@sinaihospital.ca

Trauma-Informed De-Escalation Education for Safety and Self-Protection: Building Organization-Wide Safety Through Interprofessional Training

Katie Hodgson, The Centre For Addiction And Mental Health, katie.hodgson@camh.ca

Title: The Medical Psychiatry Collaborative Care Certificate program: building care provider capacity for integrated collaborative care. Authors: David Wiljer, Sanjeev Sockalingam, Shahista Premji, Gurpreet Grewal, Diana Grossi, Alicia Lozon, David Daien,

Shahista Premji, MP3C, shahista.premji@thp.ca

Dr. Alison Freeland, Trillium Health Partners, alison.freeland@thp.ca

Training and Support in System Navigation for Patients and Family Members Antidepressant Utilization in the CAMH PARTNERS Project

Alexandra Kubica, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, alexandra.kubica@camh.ca

Eleni Kelly, Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, Eleni.Kelly@camh.ca

Evaluation of a Deteriorating Case Simulation Workshop on Integrated Approaches to Physical and Mental Health Care

Fadi Gorgi, University of Toronto, fadi.gorgi@mail.utoronto.ca

The Family Navigation Project: An Innovation in Supporting Youth with Mental Health and/or Addictions Concerns and their Families

Hinaya Cader, Family Navigation Project - Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre, hinaya.cader@sunnybrook.ca